Dalai Lama to undergo surgery in US

He turned 80 last year.

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
CHANDIGARH, JANUARY 19

TIBETAN SPIRITUAL leader the Dalai Lama Tuesday left for the US, where he will undergo a prostate surgery. The surgery will be done at Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minnesota. The Dalai Lama has been advised rest for a month, till February-end.

The Dalai Lama, who turned 80 in July last year, was diagnosed with a prostate ailment nearly two years ago. He has received treatment for this in the past, too. His official website made the announcement Tuesday and said the Dalai Lama's "regular engagement schedule shall resume in March."

This means the Dalai Lama will not be present in Rewalsar, Mandi district, where Tibetans are planning a grand event on February 7 - the Tibetan New Year (Losar). The event is being organised after a gap of 12 years. In 2004, to commemorate the birthday of Padmasambhava (Guru Rinpoche), a grand fair was organised in Rewalsar. It was inaugurated by the Dalai Lama.

AUSU president invites journalist to campus, ABVP on hunger strike

LALMANI VERMA
LUCKNOW, JANUARY 19

THE TUSSELE between Allahabad University Students' Union (AUSU) president Richa Singh and RSS's student wing ABVP led to fresh trouble on the varsity campus over a national seminar being organised by Richa, for which she has invited journalist Siddharth Varadarajan as chief speaker.

The ABVP leaders, who hold other significant posts in the union, sat on indefinite hunger strike on Tuesday outside the residence of university Vice-Chancellor R L Hangloo, demanding cancellation of the seminar. The seminar, on 'Democracy, media and freedom of expression', will be organised on Wednesday and presided over by Hangloo.

AUSU vice-president Vikrant Singh said, "There are two reasons behind our protest. First, the union president did not consult us before planning the event. Secondly, Siddharth Varadarajan is a controversial man... Richa has invited a person who has a communal mindset, while she had opposed the campus visit of BJP MP Yogi Adityanath last year, calling him communal."

Dismissing the protests, Richa said Varadarajan is an unbiased journalist and ABVP leaders should read his articles before making derogatory remarks about him. She added that ABVP leaders were opposing the seminar only to settle scores over the November incident, when she had opposed Yogi Adityanath's visit.

The union president said she did not discuss preparations of the event with other union members because they too hold several events on campus without consulting her.

Richa further claimed she was being targeted by ABVP members of the union for being a woman and the university administration was also under their pressure. "ABVP members are targeting me because they can't tolerate a woman as president. A woman got elected in AUSU after 128 years and they want to create an atmosphere where no woman can dare contest elections in future," she alleged.

Dr N K Shukla, university proctor, said, "We are keeping a watch on the situation. No decision has been taken on their demands so far."

Later in the day, Richa wrote to the President, the PM and the HRD Minister on the issue.

4 die while cleaning Chennai hotel septic tank

ARUN JANARDHANAN
CHENNAI, JANUARY 19

FOUR MEN allegedly died of asphyxiation while cleaning a septic tank of a private hotel in Okkiyam Pettai near Thorai-pakkam, about 20 km from Chennai, on Tuesday morning, police said. According to municipal corporation officials, the four were contract labourers with the civic body.

A case of unnatural death has been registered.

According to the police, the four workers and a hotel employee started the work of cleaning the septic tank around 9 a.m. "The four men had been engaged by the owner of the hotel. Another hotel staff, who was at the mouth of the tank assisting them, also collapsed and was taken to the Royapettah general hospital. We were told that his condition is stable," an officer from Kannagi Nagar police station said.

The four have been identified as Vel Murugan, (29), Rajesh (25), Saravanan (30) and Kumar (48), all from the Scheduled Caste Adi Dravidar community, who are traditionally manual scavengers. They lived at Kannagi Nagar, a settlement allotted to over 15,000 slum dwellers relocated from city slums in the past one decade.

The victims were reportedly engaged in the work for an amount of Rs 230 a day.

2000 RED FORT ATTACK

SC allows open court hearing for death-row convict Mohd Arif

Curative petition already rejected, SC makes exception

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
NEW DELHI, JANUARY 19

EMPHASISING ON the irreversibility of death sentence, the Supreme Court Tuesday granted 2000 Red Fort attack convict Mohd Arif an open court hearing to convince the court why his punishment required reconsideration.

Giving hope to the death row convict, a Constitution Bench led by Chief Justice T S Thakur said Arif's review petition shall be heard in open court again if he files such a plea within a month.

Arif, the court held, shall get this opportunity irrespective of the fact that his curative petition has already been dismissed. The bench modified a previous order that had disintegrated death row convicts to seek open court hearings of their review petitions if their curative petitions had been rejected.

By a verdict in September 2014, the court had ruled that all review petitions of death row convicts shall be heard in an open court by a three-judge bench. But the convicts whose curative petitions had been dismissed before this judgment were deprived of this benefit. Earlier, review petitions were heard in judges' chambers.

However, on Tuesday, the Bench underscored that it was the irreversibility of capital punishment that had prompted it to allow open court hearings in such cases and convicts should not be denied this opportunity only because their curative petitions had been dismissed.

It also observed that since very limited grounds are available to a convict in a curative petition, whereas he can argue on various points in the review petition, dismissal of a curative petition may not be held as the final word on the facts of the case.

It asked Arif's counsel to file a fresh review petition within a month and then the matter shall be placed before a three-judge bench to hear his case in open court. His counsel had earlier argued that the classification in the previous judgment was artificial, as dismissal of curative petition is on grounds very distinct with the review plea. He further pointed out that out of 15 death row convicts who had sought open court hearing of review petitions, only Arif was denied the benefit since his curative petition had been dismissed.

The apex court on April 28, 2014 had stayed Arif's execution. Three people, including two Army personnel, were killed in the December 22, 2000 Red Fort attack. On August 10, 2011, the Supreme Court upheld Arif's death sentence and dismissed his appeal challenging the capital punishment awarded to him by a sessions court, which had been affirmed by the Delhi High Court.

Two Bengaluru sisters commit suicide

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
BENGALURU, JANUARY 19

TWO SISTERS, both engineering students, allegedly committed suicide by hanging themselves with the same sari at their house in Hongasandra in south Bengaluru late on Monday night, police said.

The women, M Tejaswini (22) and her sister M Ranjitha (20), were upset because their parents did not approve of their relationships, police said. Tejaswini was in the final year and Ranjitha in the second year at a private engineering college in Channasandra.

According to the police, the women's father, Malleshappa, a provision store owner, had decided to get Tejaswini married and start looking for a groom for Ranjitha too. On Monday, he discussed this with his daughters, who told him they were already in relationships.

At this, Malleshappa expressed his disappointment and they had a long argument over the matter, the police said. The family went to bed close to midnight, but Malleshappa woke up around 3.30 am and went to his daughters' room to speak to them. He found both the women hanging with a sari in their room. The sisters were taken to a nearby hospital, where doctors declared them dead on arrival, the police said.

Malleshappa then informed the Madiwala police, who registered a case of unnatural death. A suicide note has been recovered from the women's bedroom, officers said.

"We found a suicide note at the scene of crime. It did not blame anyone for the sisters' suicide. It said they were sorry for being a disappointment to their father and family and hoped for forgiveness. No specific reason was mentioned for their extreme step," MB Boralingaiah, Deputy Commissioner of Police (South-East division) said.
